PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. ANDREW'S

MISS GERTRUDE BAKER BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. W. H. PHILLIPS OF OHIO.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude A. Baker to W. H. Phillips, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at St. Andrew's cathedral, was attended by a number of friends of the bride, and was one of the prettiest affairs of the kind which has taken place in Honolulu for some time. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Bishop Restarick.

Before and after the wedding service, Mr. Rudolph Bode, the organist, played sweet wedding music, from Wagner and Mendelssohn.

The bride, who was beautiful in an artistic gown of white silk mull, trimmed with Irish lace, and wearing a large white hat trimmed with soft satin bows, and carrying a large shower bouquet of white jasmine and maiden hair ferns, was given away by H. P. Wood.

The chancel and altar of the cathedral were beautifully decorated with white jasmine and green foliage.

After the ceremony, the marriage register was signed, and the bride and groom left the church, and while seated in their carriage which was taken to them by their hotel, were showered with congratulations by their many friends, and with rice by some who had not forgotten to make provision to observe this custom.

At the Young Hotel where the happy young people are stopping until the sailing of the China on Thursday, when they will leave for Japan, a prettily appointed dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock last evening, at which besides the bride and groom were present Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wood, and Mrs. Angus.

Mrs. Phillips will be greatly missed by the many friends which she made during the several months during which she lived in Honolulu, and filled the position of librarian for the Honolulu Library. Mr. Phillips who is prominently interested in the large porteries of East Liverpool, Ohio, will take his bride there after a several months honeymoon trip to Japan.

COL. HEPBURN LUNCHEON.

Col. William J. Hepburn, United States Representative from Iowa, who is one of the members of the visiting Congressional party, was the honor guest at a luncheon given on Monday at the Pacific Club by Col. Sam Parker. The affair was quite devoid of formality and everybody present spent a most enjoyable hour.

Those present at the lunch were: Col. Parker, Col. Hepburn, Col. Hawes, Prince David, J. M. Dowsett, Judge Hartwell, U. S. District Attorney Breckons, J. A. McCandless, Attorney A. Lewis and Justice A. A. Wilder.

THE MACKENZIE GORDON CONCERT

Those who have not yet made up their minds to hear the Mackenzie Gordon song recital at the Opera House tomorrow night should do so at once. There are a few good seats still unsold and no music lover can afford to miss hearing Gordon sing. As a matter of fact one can hear almost equally well from any part of the house as Mr. Gordon's voice has a wonderful carrying power, even in the softest tones.

Among recent criticisms from the Pacific Coast the following is taken from the Berkeley Courier:

Mackenzie Gordon, the great tenor, sang to a crowded house in Palo Alto when he gave his concert in Assembly Hall last Friday night, and never did he sing to a more enthusiastic, music loving gathering.

Besides the generous program proffered, there seemed to be no end to the tumultuous encores, and, with Gordon's customary graciousness, he complied with the repeated requests for more.

At 7:30 this evening a public moonlight concert with the following program will be rendered at Kakaako:

PART I.

Overture—"Poet and Peasant".....Suppe

Hawaiian Band.

"The March of Our Nation".....Grieg

Kakaako Choral Society.

"The Road Leads Home".....Towner
